DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Specification

2. The title of the invention needs to be more descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 11, line 13, the phrase "said electrode" is vague. Which electrode is being referred here? In line 16, the phrase "said electrode" is vague. In lines 18-19, the phrase "said electrode" is vague. In line 21, the phrase "said electrode" is vague.

In claim 12, it appears that this claim should be depended on claim 11 and not claim 7 to provide proper antecedent basis for the phrase "the casing components".

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 7-12 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 8-14 of U.S. Patent Publication No. 2006/0081048 (Mikado et al.) in view of U.S. copending Application 10/540,240 (Mikado).

Mikado et al. '048 discloses an acceleration sensor claiming all of the features as presently claimed in the instant Application except for claim 12. Mikado '240 discloses an acceleration sensor claiming the features as presently claim in the instant Application along with the lacking feature of claim 12 of the instant Application (this is claimed in claim 14 of the Mikado '240 application).

7. Claims 7-12 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 9-14 of copending Application No. 10/540,240 (Mikado) in view of U.S. Patent Publication No. 2006/0081048 (Mikado et al.).

Mikado et al. '240 discloses an acceleration sensor claiming all of the features as presently claimed in the instant Application except for the feature of "each of the first and second resonators is attached to the base plate such that the opposite main surfaces having the electrodes disposed thereon are substantially perpendicular to the application direction of acceleration". Mikado '240 discloses an acceleration sensor claiming the features as presently claim in the instant Application along with the lacking feature as mentioned above in claim 8.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The references cited are related to acceleration sensor having a resonator.
